Sarah –

Agnes Antonian is an attorney at Connell Foley who represents PSEG. She has a technical (I think chemical) background and also serves on the CPG Technical Committee.

The CPG asked us to have an in-person meeting with you and Ray, and whoever else you want to invite, so we'd like to trek into the City. Candidly, I think the face-to-face dialogue may be important to understand the perspectives of each side, and may be quite helpful to establishing the foundation for the future.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Best,

Gary P. Gengel

Gary,

I am available to talk on Monday. Ray is out of reach today and I have not been able to find out if he is free on Monday afternoon. In any case, I think EPA's position is very clear so a meeting seems like overkill. I suggest we talk by phone rather than making three lawyers trek to EPA for a meeting.

By the way, I apologize if I should know who Agnes is and who she represents, but I do not. Please enlighten me.

Regards,

-Sarah

Sarah -

Can you and Ray, and anyone else you want, able to meet with Agnes, Warren and me on Monday at 3:00 pm to discuss the AOC?

Thanks,

Gary
